

The Sevashram undertakes Awareness Generation Programs for the local public against various social evils and preparedness against sudden occurrence of floods. Various experts and people's representatives speak on the occasions. The flood relief operation carried out by the Sevashram in 2010 earned appreciation from all corners. Every year around 100 poor and needy persons are provided with cloths, blankets and winter garments. Around 25 students are donated text books every year. Besides all these programs, Blood Donation Camp is organized. Forty Three persons donated blood last year.
